Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From May 19. to May 26. 1737.

London, February 25.
(From the Gentleman's Magazine for February.)

IT WAS reported, that a Motion was made in the Houſe of Peers by Lord C-----t for an Addreſs in the moſt loyal Terms to His Majeſty, that he would pleaſe to Settle One Hundred Thouſand Pounds a Year on the Prince of Wales out of the Civil Liſt Revenues, and alſo a like Joynture on the Princeſs, as her Majeſty had when Princeſs of Wales; and that the ſaid Lord ſupported it with a moſt elegant Speech. After which the Duke of N----e ſaid he was commanded to acquaint the Houſe that his Majeſty ſent on the 21ſt a Meſſage to his R. H. by the Ld. Chancellor, Ld. Steward, Ld. Chamberlain, D. of Richmond, D. of Argyle, D. of Newcaſtle, Earl of Pembroke, Earl of Scarborough, and Lord Harrington. Which Meſſage, we heard, was in Writing, and as follows.

"His Majeſty has commanded us to acquaint your Royal Highneſs in his Name, That upon your Royal Highneſs's Marriage, he immediately took into his Royal Conſideration the ſettling a proper Joynture upon the Princeſs of Wales; but his ſudden going Abroad, and his late Indiſpoſition ſince his Return, had hitherto retarded the Execution of theſe his gracious Intentions; from which ſhort Delay his Majeſty did not apprehend any Inconveniencies could ariſe, eſpecially ſince no Application had in any Manner been made to him upon this Subject by your Royal Highneſs; And that his Majeſty hath now given Order for ſettling a Joynture upon the Princeſs of Wales, as far as he is enabled by Law, ſuitable to her high Rank and Dignity; which he will in proper Time, lay before his Parliament, in order to be render'd certain and effectual, for the Benefit of his Royal Highneſs.---The King hath further commanded us to acquaint your Royal Highneſs, that altho' your Royal Highneſs has not tho't fit, by any Application to his Majeſty, to deſire that your Allowance of 50,000 l. per Annum, which is now paid you by Monthly Payments, at the Choice of your Royal Highneſs, preferable to Quarterly Payments, might by his Majeſty's further Grace and Favour be rendred leſs precarious; His Majeſty to prevent the bad Conſequences which he apprehends may follow from the undutiful Meaſures, which his Majeſty is inform'd your Royal Highneſs has been adviſed to purſue, will grant to your Royal Highneſs for his Majeſty's Life the ſaid 50,000 l. per Ann. to be iſſued out of his Majeſty's Civil Liſt Revenues, over and above your R---H----'s Revenues ariſing from the Dutchy of Cornwall, which his Majeſty thinks a very competent Allowance, conſidering his numerous Iſſue, and the great Expences which do and muſt neceſſarily attend an honourable Proviſion for his whole Family.---And that to this Meſſage his R---H.---- the Prince return'd a verbal Anſwer; which, according to the beſt Recollection of the Lords was:---That his Royal Highneſs deſired the Lords to lay him with all Humility, at his Majeſty's Feet; and to aſſure his Majeſty that he had and ever ſhould retain the utmoſt Duty for his Royal Perſon: That his Royal Highneſs was very thankful for any Inſtance of his Majeſty's Goodneſs to him or the Princeſs, and particularly for his Majeſty's gracious Intention of ſettling a Joynture upon her Royal Highneſs. But that as to the Meſſage, the Affair was now out of his Hands, and therefore he could give no Anſwer to it. After which his Royal Highneſs uſed many dutiful Expreſſions towards his Majeſty, and then added; Indeed, my Lords, it is in other Hands; I am ſorry for it, or Words to the ſame Effect; concluding with earneſtly deſiring the Lords to repreſent his Anſwer to his Majeſty in the moſt reſpectful Manner.

After Debate till Ten at Night, the Queſtion was put, Whether to addreſs, &c. and paſſed in the Negative, 103 to 40.

Extract from the Votes of the Honourable Houſe of Commons. Jovis 3. Die Martij, 1736.

A Petition of the Merchants and Ironmongers of this Kingdom, in behalf of themſelves and many others trading to His Majeſty's Plantations in America, was preſented to the Houſe and read; ſetting forth, that there are Premiums ſettled by Acts of Parliament upon the Importation of Tar, Pitch, Turpentine, Hemp, Maſts, Yards and Bowſprits, but not an Encouragement upon the Importation of Iron into this Kingdom from our American Colonies, where it is capable of being produced in every reſpect equal in Goodneſs to the beſt Iron from Sweden, from which and other foreign Countries are annually imported into Great-Britain upwards of Twenty Thouſand Tons, the greateſt Part of which is paid for in ready Money; and that, the Inhabitants of the Britiſh Colonies, having already erected ſeveral Furnaces and Forges for the making of Bar Iron, Great Britain may in a Courſe of Years be ſupplied, and rendered independent of any foreign Country, for a Commodity ſo eſſential to the Support of our Navigation; but that it is to be feared, if ſome Encouragement be not given for the Importation of it into Great Britain, that they will be induced to work up the ſaid Iron themſelves, to the great Decay and Prejudice of the Iron Trade in this Kingdom, which at this time employs more People, eſpecially of the poor laborious Sort, than any other Trade, that of the Woollen Manufacture only excepted; and therefore praying the Houſe to take the Premiſſes into Conſideration, and to give ſuch Encouragement for the Importation of Bar Iron, Pigs and Sows from America, as to lay ſuch a Reſtraint on their manufacturing as to the Houſe ſhall ſeem reaſonable.

And the Queſtion being propoſed, that the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of a Committee;

And a Debate ariſing in the Houſe thereupon:

Ordered,

That the Debate be adjourned until this Day ſevennight.

Veneris 4. Die Martij, 1736.

A Petition of ſundry Iron-Maſters and Ironmongers in the County of Lancaſter, on Behalf of themſelves, and many others concerned in the Iron Trade, was preſented to the Houſe, and read; ſetting forth, that the Inhabitants of New-England have, within theſe few Years, erected ſeveral Forges and ſlitting Mills, and do annually make a great deal of Bar Iron, and manufacture the ſaid Iron into Axes, Nails, and ſundry other Species, and do now not only ſupply themſelves with a great Part of their Nails and other Iron Ware, but export great Quantities to many other of his Majeſty's Plantations, to the great Decay and Prejudice of the Iron Trade in this Kingdom, which at this time employs more People, and eſpecially of the poor laborious Sort, than any other Trade, that of the Woollen Manufacture only excepted; and that unleſs their ſlitting Mills are deſtroyed, and ſome Stop put to their Manufacturing, our Trade muſt ſoon be utterly ruined, and great Numbers of People employed in the making and manufacturing Iron will unavoidably be deprived of the Means of their Subſiſtence; and therefore praying the Houſe to take the Caſe of the Petitioners into Conſideration, and therefore grant them ſuch Relief, as to the Houſe ſhall ſeem reaſonable.

[Which Petition (together with ſeveral others preſented to the Houſe on the 7th of March, of the ſame Purport,) was ordered to lye upon the Table, until the adjourned Debate upon the Queſtion propoſed for referring to a Committee the Petition of the Merchants and Ironmongers, above recited.]

London, March 7. Letters from Petersburg ſay, that Court continues to make very great Preparations, in order to have a numerous Army in the Field early in the Spring. A Battalion of 700 Men of each of the three Regiments of Foot Guards are ordered to march; as they are very good Troops, thoſe 2100 Men will make a fine Appearance in the Field. About 4000 Seamen, with a Rear Admiral, nine Captains, a great Number of Lieutenants and Maſters, have been ſent from thence with Anchors, Cables, and all ſorts of Stores for Shipping, to Taboroff on the River Don, and to Branska on the Nieper; among the Officers there are five Engliſh Captains, and a great many Engliſh Lieutenants; they are to command the Boats that are built at Tabaroff, &c.

Laſt Tueſday a Quantity of light Wines of the Growth of Portugal were brought from Portſmouth to the King's Cellars, being a Preſent from his Portugueſe Majeſty to our Sovereign.

They write from Paris, that an Affair had happened at Doway, which will probably create a freſh Miſunderſtanding between the Court and the Parliament; the Caſe is this, Monſ. Rivet, a Canon of the Collegiate Church at Doway, who always teſtified a great Averſion to the Bull Unigenitus from which he had twice appealed, died about two Weeks ago in the ſame Sentiments; his fellow Canons judging him unworthy, from his Oppoſition to the ſaid Bull, of being buried in their common Burying-Ground, they bury'd him out of the Church Yard, in a Place where they bury Infants that die without Baptiſm: But the Procurer Fiſcal, who is obliged by his Office, to order all things relating to the Interment of the Canons, hearing the Body had been placed in the Coffin, with with the Head towards the Church and the Face upwards, and looking upon the Cavon as one dead out of the Church, had the Inhumanity to order the Body to be dug up again, and placed with his Feet towards the Church and his Face downward towards the Earth. Upon this the Deceased's Niece protested against what had pass'd, and complained to the Parliament at Doway, from whence the Affair has been remitted to the Parliament of Paris. The Parliament being assembled began to proceed upon it as an infamous Attempt upon the Laws of the State, and a Violation of the Rights of the Gallican Church; but the King's Council immediately put out an Arret ordering the whole Affair to be brought before them, which the Parliament regarding as a Breah of Priviledge, have resolved to make a Remonstrance to the King accordingly. People are impatient to know what will be the Result of this Proceeding; but its hoped the Ministry will take such prudent Measures as shall prevent any ill Consequence.

The Court of Russia have entirely approved the Plan, which Count Munich and General Lascy have laid before them of the Operations of the approaching Campaign with the Turks; accordingly Count Munich is set out for the Ukraine, to put it in immediate Execution.

The last Letters from Cracow confirm the exceeding scarcity of Provisions in Poland to such a degree, that in some Places, the Famine begins to make a dreadful Havock among the People.

Count Fuenclara, the Spanish Ambassador, arrived at Vienna from Venice, the 15th Inst. N. S. his Catholick Majesty has assigned him a thousand Pistoles a Month for his Expences, from whence it is conjectured he designs to make a great Figure at the Imperial Court.

The Sea Nymph, Capt. Harmon, in her Passage from Jamaica put into Dona Maria Bay, at the West End of Hispaniola, with a Ship for Bristol which had sprung a Leak; and when going from thence a French Man of War of 50 Guns came in (having a considerable Number of Soldiers on board, designed to change their Garisons on the Coasts of that Island) who fired several Shot at the Bristol Ship, made her bring to, and boarded her with 100 Men; but a British Man of War, commanded by Captain Bridge, fortunately coming up, not only discouraged them from attempting the Sea Nymph, but occasioned their quitting the Bristol Ship, both of whom were conveyed through the Windward Passage by Captain Bridge.

NEW-YORK, May 16.

Extract of a Letter from Jamaica, of the 4th of April.

Now I come to advise you of the Destruction of Panama. You must know that sometime in February, a Woman an Inhabitant of that City had Occasion to be up at Night; after went to the Fire to light her Segar and smoaked a little, when being satiated, extinguished the same as she imagined; she falling asleep the Segar took Fire and destroyed the whole House; nay the Fire was so contagious that it consumed the City, which contained above 3000 Houses in less then three Hours Time all to Ashes, with all their Riches and Furniture.
